

My local community would be negatively affected if LPFM broadcasting were given precedence over FM translator services, such as KLOVE and other Christian radio translators. Please take this into consideration.